

Please join CJC as we celebrate the “New Year of the Trees”
with an intergenerational, family-friendly

Tu B’Shevat SEDER and Pot Luck Dinner

led by Rabbi Starr and Cantor Morrison.

This wonderful seder has its origins in the 16th century; we bring it to the 21st century with tastes, songs, and study.

Tuesday, Feb. 7, 5:30 pm,
Oakland Mills Interfaith Center
(also known as The Meeting House)

POT LUCK DINNER is Vegetarian or Dairy – NO MEAT

Last name A through F: Dessert (including fresh fruit)

Last name G through Q: Side Dish/Salad

Last name R through Z: Main dish (entrée)

CJC will provide the drinks. Please be sure that any dishes you bring are NUT-FREE

See if you can use one of the “Seven Species” of fruits and vegetables in your dish. (Wheat, Barley, Grape, Olive, Fig, Dates, Pomegranate)

Please RSVP to Mindy at CJC office by Feb. 2, 410-730-6044 ext. 317
