

Wherever you are in your journey,
you are welcome here.

APPLAUSE

for CJC's Unsung Heroes

As many of you know Cantor Morrison has chosen to go part-time which means that there are many Friday nights when Rabbi Starr is leading services without her. As a result, there are many people who have generously stepped forward to help lead the Friday night service with her. M.E. Hughes is one of those people. She not only is co-leading the Friday night service, she is learning it as well. The congregation benefits from her generous gift of time as well as her naturally beautiful singing voice. We thank you M.E. for all you give to the choir and CJC.

For the last two years, CJC has been exploring different dues structures. Beginning with Sheldon Gnatt, the process was further developed by Josh Kaufman. Josh took over during the time of learning and has masterfully created many different environments for congregants to learn about the various structures. His ability to listen and teach have been greatly appreciated by all of us as we make this important decision.

It is written in Pirke Avot 1:1

"Moses received Torah from Sinai and delivered it to Joshua, and Joshua to the Elders, and the Elders to the Prophets, and the Prophets delivered it to the Men of the Great Synagogue. They said three things, 'Be deliberate in judging, raise up many disciples, and make a fence for the Torah.' "

Both M.E. and Josh have given to our community by being thoughtful, supportive and ethically bound by the minhagim/customs of our sacred community.

We are so grateful for all their help.

