APPLAUSE

for CJC's Unsung Heroes

"One who is engaged with the needs of the community is likened to one who engages in the words of Torah-both are meritorious and bring blessing."

--Jerusalem Talmud

Coordinating CJC's High Holy Day services is no easy task. For more than 5 years, Lisa Pomerantz has chaired the committee to coordinate honors and aliyahs, ushers, volunteers, readers and readings, discussion group leaders as well as service schedule. Additionally, she was instrumental in securing locations for our services and making sure everything was moved and placed according to our standards. She represented CJC to our building partners to guarantee smooth running services, which meant sacrificing service time with her family. And she does all this with a smile and cordial attitude. Lisa does all of this as her role on the Religious Practices committee.

Sheldon Gnatt brings a gentle, sincere, respectful attitude to everything he does; from his work on the board, contract negotiations, dues restructuring, supporting the teen's initiatives or the blood drive. The commonality is the ability to bring about positive change in a win-win manner that allows all to feel respected and heard.
