

APPLAUSE

for CJC's Unsung Heroes

"One who is engaged with the needs of the community is likened to one who engages in the words of Torah-both are meritorious and bring blessing."

--Jerusalem Talmud

Dan Shernicoff describes himself as "Just a guy trying to make sense of life, the universe, and everything." ... and it seems apt. He is a regular presence in so many facets of our community that we wonder if there aren't two of him! Dan is a member of the CJCS Board and assists with many school-wide activities. He is an active member of the synagogue's Religious Practices committee and also serves on the CJC Board. He and his family are regular attendees at services and Dan frequently assists with the setup of our L'Dor V'Dor services. We are blessed that to have him - and his family - as members.

Roz Zinner has entered leadership roles at CJC at crucial times. She has held too many offices to list them all. Notably, Roz is a past chair of the Rabbi Search committee. Most recently, Roz is involved with Rebuilding Together, and immigration work CJC is doing. Through it all, her determination, hard work and valuable perspective has guided CJC. Her ability to find ways around and through obstacles allows us to continue to grow at transformative moments in our congregation's history -- all while creating beautiful mosaics that have decorated the walls of OMI as well as many other places. Roz Zinner is truly one of CJC's unsung heroes.