

Rabbi Search Candidate Virtual Interview Weekend February 26-28, 2021 - Mikey Hess Webber

Click here to read Mikey's biography

Thursday Night – February 18, 2021

Because of Purim, this class will take place on February 18.

7:45pm – 8:45pm, Teen Discussion

Mikey Hess Webber will teach the class and facilitate discussion.

All CJC teens are invited and encouraged to attend, even those not registered for the class.

Friday, February 26, 2021

7:00pm – 8:30pm, Friday Evening Shabbat Worship

This is our regular Friday Evening Worship Link. If you already have a link, no need to register again.

Mikey Hess Webber will lead our Shabbat Evening Service.

Saturday, February 27, 2021

10:00am – 12:00pm, Saturday Morning Shabbat Service

This is our regular Shabbat Morning Service link. If you already have a link, no need to register again.

Mikey Hess Webber will lead will lead Shabbat Morning Service.

2:00pm – 3:00pm, Adult Education Discussion

Mikey Hess Webber will lead an adult education session. We will explore the American response to the Jewish immigrant diet at the turn of the 20th century and uncover the incredible political power of our most beloved of snacks - the kosher dill!

7:00pm – 9:00pm, Havdalah and Question/Answer Session

Mikey Hess Webber will lead a 20-30 minute intergenerational Havdalah service. Right after, congregants will have the opportunity to meet and greet the candidate and ask any questions they would like answered.

If possible, please send questions in advance to CJC member, Michele Krupka (michelekrupka@gmail.com)

Sunday, February 28, 2021

1:00pm – 2:00pm, Q&A with CJCS Parents

Mikey Hess Webber will meet with school parents with a Q&A relating to education.

4:00pm – 5:00pm, Pre-B'nai Mitzvah Students

Mikey Hess Weber will teach 6th/7th grade CJCS class

Zoom links are embedded in each event title and are also available on the CJC calendar by date.

Questions or suggestions? Please feel free to share with Alex Ross, Chair, CJC Rabbi Search Committee
(Alexande_ross@comcast.net)