Mary's Land Farm, 4979 Sheppard Lane, Ellicott City
Bring a picnic lunch, or purchase food there!

Sunday, October the 16th is Hoshanah Rabbah - the final day of Sukkot. On this day, it is traditional to walk circles around the sanctuary and beat the ground with the lulav as we pray for rain!

This year, instead of gathering in the sanctuary, we will celebrate this last day of Sukkot by gathering in the fields! We will walk circles, this year, through the corn maze and pumpkin fields.

All are welcome so bring your friends too! There will be food trucks, live music, animals, a kid's fun park and even a hay ride!

Mitzvah in the Maize!

Be sure to bring some canned goods to the farm as a donation to the OMI food pantry in exchange you will get a chance to beat the ground for rain!

$12 general admission per person

Add-ons include: wagon rides and pumpkin purchases
